ALLIED TRADES JOIN BUTCHERS

OBEY ORDERS FOR GENERAL STRIKE

Stock Yards Fight Promises to Be One of Bitterest Contests Between Capital and Labor in History of America.

Chicago, July 25.—With all peace negotiations broken off and with all allied trades unions employed at the different plants, with the exception of teamsters and stationary engineers out on strike in sympathy with the butcher workers, who quit two weeks ago, the stock yards strike had settled down to what promises to be one of the bitterest fights between capital and labor in America.

As has been threatened for some time, the allied trades employed in the packing industry when called on to day. At 6 o'clock to night a statement was made by President Donnelly, of the Butchers' union that every union man employed at the stock yards, with the exception of the teamsters and engineers, had responded to the orders for a general sympathetic strike. The engineers, he declared, would join the strikers to morrow morning unless there was a speedy settlement, and the teamsters would undoubtedly join. According to Donnelly to day's strike swelled the number of strikers at the stock yards in Chicago alone to nearly 30,000 persons. Both sides of the controversy declared to night they are perfectly satisfied with the present state of affairs, and that they were willing to make it a fight to the finish to determine who will dictate the terms of settlement.

According to the packers the general strike to day was a failure, it being claimed by them that not over half of the members of the allied trades quit. A further statement was made by packers that should all union men decide to join the strikers it would make little difference to employers, as they had sufficient forces to contest the ground for an indefinite period. On the other hand labor leaders assert union employees quit to day in response to the general order for a sympathetic strike.

New phases developed this afternoon, when notice was given to independent packers their men would not be allowed to handle animals brought into the yards or handled in any way by non-union men. It is necessary for these independent concerns to take all their livestock into their yards over union stock yards runways, where the stock must be handled by non-union men, since union men employed by the stock yards company were among those who joined the sympathetic strike to day. The ultimatum of the unions leaves the independent packers no alternative but to receive their livestock directly from the country or else close down entirely.

Before the peace negotiations had been entirely broken off to day representatives of the Teamsters' union, as had been agreed upon last night, were in conference with the packers in an effort to arrange some sort of a settlement which would prevent a spread of the strike. At this meeting the packers were asked to concede the first agreement signed last Wednesday, and which was later repudiated by the strikers, when the second strike was called, to be considered null and void, and the packers submit a new proposition for peace terms. The committee also notified the packers the striking butchers would stand by last Saturday's demand. No progress toward a settlement was made at the conference and the teamsters' committee remained to consider a new proposal. Immediately upon return of the teamsters' committee to union headquarters they entered into a conference with representatives of the allied trades to consider a proposition submitted to the unions by the packers. In the meeting between the teamsters and packers the latter offered to change the time of re-instating all strikers from forty-five to thirty-five days. They made no other concessions and this proposal was submitted to the allied trades committee. President Donnelly, however, refused to consider the proposal and all hope of immediate settlement was lost. The president of the Teamsters' union urged the proposition be considered and that an effort of settlement be made, but the sentiment of the meeting was overwhelmingly against him and the committee adjourned without intending to arrange any more meetings with the packers.

TEAMSTERS MAY STRIKE.

After failing in peace negotiations President Golden of the Teamsters' union notified members of the internal committee that his efforts to bring about peace to day had been unsuccessful and asked their sanction for a sympathetic strike of the teamsters. President Donnelly to night declared it was useless to try to convince the packers they had discriminated against the men, and consequently he gave up hope of securing peace. He said he will do nothing further until the packers accept the union's terms unconditionally, which he is confident would be the final result.

PLANTS WORKING.

Despite the sympathetic strike to day all plants worked up to the regular time to day, although at reduced capacity. It was predicted by the packers that to morrow there would be a decided increase in the number of animals slaughtered.

PLEDGE MEMBERS.

Allied trades unions at a meeting to night signed an agreement that none of the unions would return to work until the packers had signed working agreements with each union represented at the yards. If the unions live up to their pledge with each other it means that all unskilled workmen must be granted working agreements with the packers before resuming work. With the packers in their present state of mind it is the general opinion they will never agree to accept such a proposition and that they would prefer to close their plants entirely rather than concede such a demand.

NON-UNION MEN.

With a detachment of policemen on each car, six train loads of non-union men were unloaded at the stock yards to night to take the places of strikers. These new arrivals, it is said by the packers representatives, brought the number of new employees distributed among the plants up to more than 7,000.

RIOTERS DISPERSED.

Disturbances in the vicinity of the stock yards this afternoon and to night were numerous. The police were on the alert, however, and in each case the rioters were dispersed before they had been able to seriously injure any of their intended victims.

NON-UNION MAN ASSAULTED.

Kansas City, July 25.—Jo Volditch, a non-union employee of Fowler's plant, was assaulted to night by three men and fatally injured.

TO PREVENT HIGH PRICES.

Omaha, Neb., July 25.—Several representatives of the independent packing interests to day were in conference with the strike leaders and as a result it is stated will soon be brought to prevent the packers from raising the price of meats. Still, it is said, will be brought under the anti-trust law.

OBJECT TO REDUCTION

Thousands of Textile Workers at Fall River, Mass., Refuse to go to Work

Fall River, Mass., July 25.—The strike order issued by the Fall River Textile Council, calling for upwards of 30,000 operatives to remain away from the mills this morning, in protest against the reduction of 12 1/2 per cent in wages, became effective to day and the response was general. There are thirty-seven mill corporations involved. The companies involved operate eighty-one mills, with 750,000 spindles.

The first day of the strike here passed quietly. Both sides are determined and the outcome is hard to predict. Neither officers of the textile council nor mill managers would make a formal statement to night, the situation, in their opinions, showing little change since morning.

TOOK MORPHINE.

Grand Rapids, Mich., July 25.—Henry Mohr, of Muskego, who was charged with embezzling $2,000 from the Muskego Dry Goods company, for which concern he had been confidential secretary, was found dead in a hotel here to day. He had taken morphine soon after registering last night under an assumed name.

KILLED BY SEWER GAS

Two Men Overcome While Examining a Well at Warsaw, Indiana.

Warsaw, Ind., July 25.—City Marshal Funk and City Engineer Goodman were killed to day by sewer gas in a lift well. Funk descended into the well to inspect the walls, and was soon overcome, crying for help as he became unconscious. Goodman went after Funk, but he too succumbed to the gas. Rescue was attempted by Deputy Sheriff Moon, who descended with a rope about him. He was pulled up from the well half unconscious. The bodies were recovered by the use of pneumatic tools.

CROOKS LEAVE BONESTEEL

Bonesteel, S. D., July 25.—Perfect order prevailed here to day, after the battle on Saturday. Peace is now certain; for the 600 crooks and grafters here the past three weeks have all gone, most of them this morning. Later reports of Saturday's fighting do not subtract from the first accounts. The name of L. H. Harper, of Nashville, Tenn., a grafter shot through the shoulder, and two unknown crooks, shot through the stomach and back, have been added to the list of casualties.

It is asserted by the government officers that the entire official directory of the town and county was on the pay roll of the grafters, accounting for their failure to preserve order.

KILLED HIS BROTHER.

Urbana, Ohio, July 25.—Chester McCreaty, aged 19, shot and killed his brother, William, aged 12, near North Lewisburg to day. They were playing, when Chester became angered and secured a shotgun discharged its contents at his brother.

SHIP SUNK BY RUSSIANS

BRITISH VESSEL SENT TO THE BOTTOM

Destroyed by Vladivostok Squadron—British Consul Ordered to Make Investigation—Various News From Scene of War.

Tokio, July 25.—The British steamer Chinan has arrived at Yokohama with the crew of the British steamer Knight Commander, which was sunk by the Russian Vladivostok squadron off Izumi. The Knight Commander's European passengers were detained by the Russians. The Chinan reports Russians sunk two Japanese schooners.

London, July 25.—The foreign office, when it received the news of the sinking of the British steamer Knight Commander, instructed the British consul at Yokohama to make a full investigation. Until a report is received no action will be taken.

Washington, July 25.—Minister Conger, at Peking, called the state department to day he was informed the Russians to day evacuated New Chwang and Hia Wang. He confirmed the sinking of the Vladivostok squadron of the British steamer Knight Commander with a cargo consigned to the American Trading Co.

TO CONSIDER CASE.

London, July 25.—The British cabinet will meet again to day to consider the case of the steamer Knight Commander and the general situation arising from the action of the Russian warships. The London newspapers this morning consider Balfour's statement in the common yesterday proves that the situation is exceedingly grave and they insist that the government shall act promptly in demanding an explanation of the Knight Commander incident.

JAPANESE BELIEF.

Tokio, July 25.—The acts of the Vladivostok squadron in the Pacific and of the volunteer fleet in the Red sea has strengthened the belief here that Russia is deliberately seeking to affront America, England and Germany in the hope of finding an avenue for gracefully retiring from the disastrous war. There is no argument over the right of Russia to seize neutral vessels carrying actual contraband of war, but the wisdom of destroying neutral prizes without trial, unless the object is to involve other powers, is generally questioned. It is believed that America will refuse to recognize Russia's extended list of contraband and will speedily demand a limitation of articles reasonably contraband in order to protect her large oriental commercial interests. It is expected that Great Britain will protest against the sinking of the Knight Commander and that Germany will make a second and more vigorous protest.

BATTLE DESCRIBED.

London, July 25.—Cabling under date of July 24, the Mail's New Schwang correspondent describes a fourteen hours' desperate battle with heavy losses on both sides and which resulted in the Russian position at Atchekiao being rendered untenable, by reason of which they were compelled to retreat toward Halcheng.

"The battle began at six in the morning," the correspondent says, "the Russians resuming the attack on the Japanese position on the heights east of Atchekiao. After a few hours the Japanese left flank from Taping mountain captured the village of Tanchingdian, compelling the Russians to retreat to Tienghuatsun, six miles from their base. Russians, now reinforced, maintained the position until five in the afternoon and the Japanese right flank made a sudden appearance on the hills south of Atchekiao and by a tremendous fire forced the Russians to retreat. The Japanese firing line extended fifteen miles. After two more hours of an incessant storm of shot and shell they swept the last hill and plain clear of the Russians."

CHECK FOR RUSSIANS.

London, July 25.—War news in the papers this morning is scant, but all reports indicate that the Russians have suffered a serious check in the vicinity of Atchekiao. The Telegraph's Liao Yang correspondent, telegraphing Sunday, reports that Atchekiao was definitely evacuated after a severe engagement which was intended to retard the Japanese flank movement on Liao Yang.

The Standard's correspondent at Tien Tsin reports incessant fighting since last Thursday around Atchekiao and Kai Chou, in which the Japanese were steadily forcing the Russians back.

WAR REPORTS.

New Chwang, July 25.—A battle took place Sunday east of Atchekiao, which resulted in the Russians being driven back. It is believed they will have to retire to Liao Yang. The battle lasted all day.

Tokio, July 25.—The Vladivostok squadron was sighted twenty miles off Katsuo Ura, in the prefecture of Shimonu, at 7 o'clock this morning. It was steaming slowly east.

Constantinople, July 25.—Vessels arriving here report British warships patrolling off Cape Helas, fifteen miles south of the Dardanelles, using their searchlights with the supposed view of intercepting any British ships which may have been captured by the Russian volunteer fleet of steamers if they attempt to pass the Dardanelles.

Suez, July 25.—The British steamer Ardova, which, after being freed at, was captured by the Russian steamer Smolensk, has arrived here. Captain Smith has lodged with the British consul a protest against the capture and detention of the steamer. Part of the Ardova's crew, who are on board the Smolensk, will be landed at Jeddah, Arabia.

Tien Tsin, July 25.—Information was received here to the effect Japanese have not entered New Chwang. The Russian civil administration departed Sunday night and destruction of the Russian government property began this morning at the instance of the administration.

St. Petersburg, July 25.—The Associated Press is informed the Russian volunteer fleet steamers Molensk and St. Petersburg, have already been ordered home. Assurances were given Great Britain on this point.

Portland, Ore., July 25.—The steamer Arbia, reported captured by the Russian Vladivostok squadron, is believed to be the Oregon & Railway Navigation company's steamer Arbia, which sailed from this port for the Orient about a month ago with a cargo of flour.

Port Said, July 25.—The Hamburg-American line steamer Scandia, which was released yesterday by the Russians, has resumed her voyage. She entered the Suez canal this afternoon.

London, July 25.—It is stated the British government has detained the British steamer Mascot at Hong Kong on suspicion she has been purchased by the Japanese government.

Liverpool, July 25.—Uneasiness is felt here for the safety of the British steamer Shubert, which sailed from Caleta Buena Del Sur, Chile, May 27, and Honolulu July 2 for Yokohama. The vessel is now overdue and it is thought she may have been captured by the Vladivostok squadron.

Mukden, July 25.—The nearest Japanese outposts have shown no change for several days past and there are no signs that they contemplate advancing. New branch societies of the "Boxers" are appearing among the Chinese under the titles of "Paganatank" and "Khunamlin." A number of leaders have been captured and ordered punished by the Chinese government.

London, July 25.—A dispatch to a news agency from Liao Yang reports heavy artillery fighting there all day yesterday. The Russian casualties, it is alleged, were thought not to exceed 400, while the Japanese are said to have lost more men. The Japanese who were attacking the "southern detachment," according to the dispatch, were forced to retire precipitately, leaving their dead and wounded on the field. The dispatch lacks convincing details and names of places.

Paris, July 25.—A dispatch to the Matin from New Chwang says heavy firing continued all day July 24. The battle lasted sixteen hours. The Russians were driven back on the east side and were reported to be routed on the north. The dispatch says the Russians evacuated New Chwang, of which the Japanese will probably take possession July 25.

ACT OF SAVAGERY

Sinking of Steamer Knight Commander So Considered.

Yokohama, July 25.—Captain Brown, of the steamship Tsinan, which brought the crew of the Knight Commander into port to day, says the Knight Commander met three Russian warships at 7:30 Saturday morning off the province of Izumi. Russian officers who boarded the Knight Commander back with them and ordered the crew of the Knight Commander to come on board one of the Russian warships within ten minutes. The Russians then sank the Knight Commander. At 8 o'clock in the afternoon the Russian vessels met the Tsinan and transferred the crew of the Knight Commander to this vessel. The boatswain of the Knight Commander says the Russians boasted that besides sinking the Knight Commander and halting the Tsinan, they sank two small Japanese vessels and that before meeting the Knight Commander they had captured a German steamer, believed to be the Arbia belonging to the Hamburg-American line, and the Cheltenham, a British vessel. Before leaving the Tsinan Captain Brown was ordered to blow off steam and not move his vessel until the Russians had disappeared over the horizon. When last seen at 7 o'clock that evening the Russian warships were steaming in a southeasterly direction toward the mouth of Tokyo bay.

The American Trading company, agents here for the Knight Commander, deny that the vessel had any contraband on board according to her manifests. The sinking of the Knight Commander without trial is considered here to be an act of savagery and as affording grounds for apprehension as to treatment by the Russians of other neutral vessels.

CAPTURE OF BRITISH SHIP

MIGHT HAVE LED TO SERIOUS COMPLICATIONS

Had on Board United States Supplies Shipped to Philippines—Trouble Averted by Release of Ship by Russians.

Washington, July 25.—A fact developed this afternoon which might have led to serious complications had it not been announced earlier in the day that the Russian government had given orders for the release of the British ship Ardova, which had on board a large quantity of supplies being shipped by the war department to the Philippine government, including 200 tons of powder and much other material that would fall within the Russian definition of contraband. The stores were being shipped through the house of Governor Peabody, who to day telegraphed the war department that the Philippine stores were aboard the Ardova and asked the department to exert itself to secure their release. He application was taken at once by Acting Secretary Oliver to the state department, but in view of the intended release of the Ardova it is improbable any action will be taken by the department.

The case of the Knight Commander is regarded here as complicated and difficult of treatment, although a more complete statement of facts is expected to simplify the problem. The case apprehended is that if the contention of shipper's agents that the cargo contained no contraband is correct the general doctrine that "neutral flags cover neutral goods" has been violated by the destruction of the ship and cargo. As for the Knight Commander herself the department will probably leave to the British government the adjustment of any issue with Russia growing out of her sinking. Some surprise has been expressed at reports of sinking by the Russian cruisers of defenseless merchant ships instead of taking them into port. It may be stated that the general naval opinion here justified that course. In event Russian warships, as is suspected, have not enough men on board to furnish prize crews to conduct captured ships to the nearest prize port. This is a desperate course and according to the naval view here is full of risk for the Russians, who must be prepared to pay in full and in cash for any maritime property belonging to citizens of a neutral power able to demonstrate that his goods were not contraband and that his ship was not seized under the rules of the prize court.

CORTOLYU AND DOVER

Chairman and Secretary of Republican National Committee Leave Washington.

Washington, July 25.—Chairman Cortolyu and Secretary Dover, of the Republican national committee, left Washington to day. HAD FIVE WIVES.

Evidence of five matrimonial contracts has been brought to light, and the investigation is made that other widows are to be heard from. Black served in an Indiana regiment in the civil war and his discharge developed a mania for marrying. His death brought three applications for his pension and thus caused an investigation to be made with the result that two other widows were found. The pension will not be paid until the genuine widow or wife No. 1 is found.

PARKER'S VISITORS

Former Chairman Jones Calls at Rosemont—Committee Meet in New York to Day.

Esopus, N. Y., July 25.—Following Chairman James K. Jones of the Democratic national committee and Daniel J. Campau, of Michigan, were visitors at Rosemont to day. They stopped here on the way to New York, where they will attend a meeting of the national committee to morrow. Jones told Parker that every Democrat who voted for Bryan will vote the Democratic ticket this fall. He also said the money question was not an issue in the campaign except as it was made a personal issue by Parker himself. The fact that there are no money planks in the platform is satisfactory to Democrats who favor free silver, and therefore, Jones said, Parker's position in declaring for a gold standard is not offensive to them.

Daniel said the franchise plank would make the south solid for the party and that this plank would enable the party to carry Maryland, West Virginia and Delaware.

It was reported to day a boom for Campau for the chairmanship may be launched at the committee meeting to morrow.

New York, July 25.—The Democratic national committee will visit Judge Parker at Esopus on Wednesday.

WILL CHOOSE TAGGART.

New York, July 25.—Members of the Democratic national committee, who arrived here to day, confirmed the opinion that Taggart, of Indiana, will be elected chairman. Both Sheehan and Mack, who know as much as anybody about Parker's position in the matter, say Taggart will be chosen.

TAGGART'S OPPONENTS.

A determined effort was made to night to induce Gorman to accept the chairmanship of the national committee. Jones and Sheehan, but he remained firm in his determination not to accept the chairmanship. Conferences of those opposing Taggart were held to night and while no conclusion was reached they hope to accomplish something to morrow morning. Taggart's friends still believe he will be chosen.

AFTER SENATORSHIP

Bryan Expected to Make Active Campaign in Nebraska.

Oyster Bay, July 25.—Senator Millard, of Nebraska, one of the president's callers to day, said Bryan expected to make a whirlwind campaign in Nebraska in the hope that he might win the legislature and secure for himself the election to the United States senate. Millard, who came east directly from Wisconsin, is convinced that the frictional trouble between Spooner and La Follette Republicans in that state will not affect seriously the national ticket. He says both sides will loyally support President Roosevelt.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 25.—A special to the North American from Washington says: "News comes from Shepherdstown, W. Va., that ex-Senator Henry G. DENEEN AND YATES CONFERENCE Campaign Plans Discussed—Republicans of Illinois Will Wage Vigorous Contest.

Chicago, July 24.—Charles Deneen and Richard Yates held their long-expected conference yesterday. Governor Yates slipped quietly into town on an early morning train and went to the Auditorium Annex. He gave a number of friends the go-by after breakfast and hastened to his meeting with the Republican candidate for governor, whose aid he hopes to have in the senatorial contest.

As Mr. Deneen intended to leave the city for an outing in the north last night the governor was intent on taking up matters connected with the campaign to day and no one else had a chance. Judge Haney and Warden E. J. Murphy spent an hour or more strolling up and down the hotel corridor and rotunda waiting for Governor Yates and then gave up the quest until late this afternoon. Campaign plans and patronage figured in the discussion. Governor Yates is anxious to have the Republican state committee make a vigorous campaign this year in order to help him in his senatorial contest and desires Mr. Deneen to advise the organization along the same line. The governor intends to take an active part in the fight, speaking in every district in the state.

Nothing was given out as to when and where the state campaign will open, but it was learned from another source that Mr. Deneen will make a speech at Petersburg, Menard county, Aug. 10, and at Watseka Aug. 31.

The subcommittee of the state organization, which will have charge of the various lines of work during the campaign, were also considered. Chairman West will announce the new executive committee next week and the subcommittees will be ready to commence business by the middle of August. James McKinney, of Alton, is favored for executive chairman. If the Cullom forces are given a chairmanship it is likely that Charles P. Hitch will be the man appointed, as he was secretly with Deneen during the deadlock, although voting Edgar county for Lowden and changing to Deneen on the decisive ballot. Hitch was the only Cullom man to switch when the stampede began.

WOMAN'S COLUMN

There is more soul-food in a good going than in a bad sermon.

If you do a little thing well it immediately becomes a big thing.

Don't imagine that quantity of lovers makes up for quality of love.

Possibly if politeness cost money there would be more of it in the world.

The summer girl is now the bathing girl and the bathing girl at the watering places.

Men like to see their wives well dressed better than they like to pay for the dresses.

History can't repeat itself too often for a youngster when it comes in the shape of a circus.

Some international marriages are like bad rhymes—they begin so well, and end so badly.

A man's man is generally a woman's man; but a woman's man is never a man's man.

Some women consider themselves immensely artistic, who are merely fond of accumulating.

It is very uncomfortable for a girl to sit three in a buggy seat when the three are all girls.

Don't forget that the cook book and the thimble are more important in the long run than the novel and the opera glass.

A woman who was lately divorced is quoted as saying: "There are too many men in the world to be unhappy with one of them."

We often hear wives spoken of as the weaker vessels, but the fact remains indisputable that the husbands always go broke first.

Running a lawn mower is a good physical culture prescription for a woman, but the neighbors abuse her husband if he lets her try it.

Nothing makes that pretty and flirtatious girl so mad as to have the wrong man hanging around making love to her when the right man is in sight.

"The world is an echo which returns us our own words; for which reason, if one would be well spoken of in the world, he must speak well of the world."

When you begin a little argument with your better half stop and count ten, then remember how dreadful you felt after the last bout. Fighting doesn't pay unless one is a professional and in the ring.

Don't disappoint your mother and father by treating home as a lodging house and themselves as persons to be worked for all you can get out of them, without any return in love or consideration or companionship.

Did you see them? No, what? Bargains at the Big Store this week.

DEMOCRATIC PREJUDICE.

Editor Journal: Whilst standing near Dunlap, Russell & Co.'s bank a few days ago, two young men were engaged in a spirited political conversation. Both young men were Democrats of the William Jennings Bryan type. The talker telegraphed to the St. Louis convention of 1904 was to them like a red rag in the face of a Spanish bull. As it wasn't a funeral, I just enjoyed their lofty ideas of what it took to make a good party leader, until their conversation drifted onto Republican ground, and, when one of those gentlemen assumed a cheap criticism of John A. Davis and his county candidate for surveyor; then, I considered it not discourteous in me to ask: those young men, what crime Mr. Davis had committed in our Republican convention? To this inquiry they replied, "Nothing, sir," I then said: "You young men must know that it is only a few years since the Democratic party, hoping to win a little party advantage in this precinct, nominated a negro, or as you call them, a 'nigger,' for the office of county constable, and now you are blighting your prejudice because a respectable, capable young man, a colored man, is nominated for an office."

There are in the Democratic party very many liberal, fair-minded men, and these young men are Democrats because of their environment, and because they know nothing of the past history of their party. In the years prior to 1860 Democrats were prone to call us "Nigger-Equalists." But we gave their charges an icy setback when we would say to those dyed-in-the-wool Democrats, "See here, Democrat, do you know that a Democratic vice president named Richard M. Johnson, was a pure, unadulterated 'Nigger-equalist'?" Yes, Mr. Johnson loved the Ethiopian race so much that he married one of them. Of course this always paralyzed a shouting Democrat.

The Democratic party put the negro on equality with the noble "white lilies" of New York state by granting every nigger in that state the right to vote if he owned a taxable amount of property worth $250, and in the state of New Jersey, a Democratic state until recent years, a negro was allowed to vote if he paid a road tax. And, when it comes to the pure essence of equality and amalgamation, heaven save us! Just look at the negro families on southern plantations and you can readily see that the crime of amalgamation was clearly apparent. I invite young Democrats to think over the above scrap of Democratic history.

I met a couple of jolly good Democrats from Cracker's Bend. We always jolly each other. One of them said, "Well, Cletian, didn't old Cleveland play hell at St. Louis?"

"Well, I guess so. You mean Gold Bug Parker's trick telegram?"

"Well, yes, that's it. I tell you, Mike, the Democratic party was sold out to Wall street."

"Yes," I said, "and young Belmont and the oil and sugar trusts were there to pay the cash. But, say: what are you silverites going to do out in the 'bend' about holding your annual silver picnic and burgo?"

"Well, Mike, we just can't do it." "Why? Ain't you fellows in the 'bend' Bryanite silverites?"

"Well, yes, we are, but how could we talk to 1 and our party nominating a gold standard candidate like old Parker?" And my friends, with blood in their eyes, gave me a parting smile by saying: "We are Democrats; a—old Cleveland we hate a dummy. We love Bryan for the enemies he has made. Roosevelt is not a dummy."

BLACK BASS SCARCE.

Fishermen are wondering what has become of the black bass this year, usually so plentiful in the Illinois river, says an exchange. While a few are being caught, they are so much scarcer than in previous years that their absence from the stream is noticeable. Some assert the destruction of the young last winter by freezing accounts for their scarcity, while others claim that the pollution of the waters of the river by the sewage from the Chicago drainage canal has driven the fish from the river, as this variety of fish is not inclined to inhabit impure water when there is a means of escaping.

SALOONS AT CARROLLTON.

Carrollton has licensed six saloons, which will bring the city a revenue of $5,500 per year. The license is $1.00 per year, except in the case of one saloon, which is located further than half a block from the square. The licenses are granted for six months at a time.

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES

Established at Maplewood Sanatorium—Only School of Its Kind in the West.

A training school for nurses has been established at Maplewood sanatorium for the purpose of giving instruction in the special field of nursing as applied to nervous and mental diseases. A charter giving power to grant diplomas has been applied for and the course of instruction has been outlined for the ensuing year. Two years will be the time required for the completion of the course, which includes practical daily work, lectures, recitations, demonstrations and laboratory work. The requirements for entrance are a high school education, or its equivalent, and three months probation period before acceptance as an undergraduate in training. The course as outlined is in keeping with the standard of eastern institutions and will be rigidly and thoroughly adhered to.

Dr. Norbury has established this school first, for the purpose of training nurses needed in his own work, second, to meet the demand for skilled nurses in this special field. It is a fact that even in the east, where the only schools of this kind exist, nurses are scarce and hard to secure. It is a field inviting for the intelligent, tactful and resourceful nurse and one that commands appreciation and remunerative occupation. Dr. Norbury is the first to inaugurate in the west a training school for nurses in the field of nervous diseases. Schools for mental nursing exist in connection with several state institutions, but none which include the special work in nervous diseases.

Dr. Norbury will lecture upon nervous and mental diseases and internal medicine. Dr. Dollear will have charge of lectures and recitations on anatomy, physiology and laboratory work. Miss Catlin will give instruction in massage, electrotherapeutic and gymnastics, in practical work and recitations in practical nursing. Other lectures on subjects in medicine and surgery will be given by physicians of the city. Five students are enrolled in the school now.

This school hopes eventually to include orthopedics in its work after Miss Goodrick completes her course in Philadelphia, and after this department is established. It is the aim of Maplewood sanatorium to develop in the west an institution in scope and usefulness similar to the Philadelphia Orthopedic Hospital and Infirmary for Nervous Diseases.

The more the merrier, join the crowd at the Big Store this week.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide is in Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vipers may look nice and small nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the scalp from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use." It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

The Big Store The Big Store The Big Store
JACKSONVILLE

We have every reason to proclaim a grand hurrah and be jubilant, as this has been the banner year of the Big Store, from basement to garret. Never before have the citizens of Jacksonville and surrounding country patronized us to such an extent, regardless of cold and rainy weather, and never before have we been so well able to supply their wants throughout the entire house. Now it is our intention, on the strength of this success and patronage to conduct a to clean out everything in the way of summer goods, remnants and broken lots, regardless of cost, so as to enable us to give our patrons from season to season nothing but new, fresh and clean merchandise, bought at the right time, in the right market, at the right prices. This does not mean that a few things will be marked down and sold cheap, but everything in the entire house will be sold at manufacturers' prices or less during this sale.

SEEING IS BELIEVING!

We mean business when we say that this is the greatest sacrifice in prices on honest, dependable, up-to-date merchandise Jacksonville has ever known. Take a day's vacation, bring your cash and visit our store. It will pay you better than going to the fair.

FRACTURED HIS SKULL.

William Massey, while under the influence of liquor yesterday about noon, fell on the south side of the square in front of Phillips' confectionery store, striking his head on the flagging with such force as to render him unconscious. Dr. Kennibrew was called from his office nearby and worked to restore the man to consciousness until the arrival of the ambulance, when he was taken to Passavant hospital.

The injured man was found to have sustained concussion of the brain, a small area of the skull being crushed. He did not recover consciousness until about 7 o'clock in the evening, but it is not thought that the injury will prove fatal.

CHURCH LAWN SOCIAL.

A most successful lawn social was given Saturday evening on the lawn of the Church of the Sacred Heart of Franklin. The affair was thoroughly enjoyed and those having it in charge are deserving of great credit for the splendid way in which it was managed.

The ladies of the church announced that in the near future a grand bazaar and fair will be given which will be extensively advertised in the columns of the Journal.

NEED LABORERS.

The laborer is almost as scarce in Whitehall as tenant houses, says the Republican of that city. Of course we have the local "sons of rest," the dude and "mama's boy," but actual labor is really a scarce commodity. Only recently an employer went to Alton to secure laborers, and the contractors who are laying the water pipe on Grant street, had to import help from Jacksonville.

Democrats insist that President Roosevelt is dangerous. He certainly is—to Democrats.

Confidence is being restored everywhere except in the Democratic party of discontent.

The Democratic party in national convention has decided to abandon the gold cross and substitute the gold brick.

The government is to print an edition of the Jefferson Bible. It will be just as new to the Democrats as the political principles of Jefferson.

Roosevelt and Fairbanks cannot be matched well in rhyme. However, they meet all the demands of reason.

The Republican party is proud of its record of fifty years. The Democrats hope that the ink with which their history was written has faded.

The Democratic party never matures to get up much speed because every time it turns a political corner it runs into itself going the other way.

Experience is touted as a great teacher, but it has not yet succeeded in showing the Democratic party the folly of trying to ride two horses going in opposite directions at the same time.

Early reports show that there are a great many "Roosevelt Democrats" in the country. It is impossible sometimes to overcome the desire to be with the sure winners.

Democrats are censuring Mr. Paul Morton, secretary of the navy, for leaving the Democratic party. No man should be blamed for joining the party of progress instead of giving encouragement to Populists and Socialists.

This year witnesses the opening of 9,000,000 additional acres of land to homesteaders and the reclaiming of millions more by the operation of the irrigation laws. The Republican party is the author of the two measures that have been of the greatest importance to the American homesteaders, the highest type of the world's citizenry.

Southern Democrats who denounce the president for his "aggressive foreign policy" will continue to send their cotton, at enhanced prices, to the Chinese treaty ports opened to our trade by the president's vigorous demands, in spite of the determined opposition of Russia, Germany and France.

JUDGE PARKER'S PROSPECTS.

Even the most ardent of Judge Parker's supporters must admit that, judged by present political conditions, a vast amount of effective Democratic missionary work will have to be performed before he can be elected as president.

The total membership of the electoral college now is 470, of which 239 constitute a majority. Conceding to Judge Parker the electoral vote of the entire south, including the states of Kentucky, Missouri and Tennessee, and conceding to him likewise the electoral vote of the state of New York, he would still have only 190 votes in the electoral college—49 short of a bare majority of one. Conceding to him, in addition, even the electoral vote of the states of Indiana, Maryland, West Virginia and Wisconsin, he would still lack twelve votes of a bare majority in the electoral college.

What are the other states in which Judge Parker may be said to have a fighting chance? asks the New York Journal. These are, possibly, Colorado, Idaho, Montana and Nevada, which combined, have thirteen electoral votes, and all of which Bryan carried in 1900. All of these states, however—with the exception of Nevada—were swept by the Republicans in 1902. Even should Judge Parker carry all four of these states, together with the other states mentioned he would still have scarcely more than a nominal majority in the electoral college.

As for the rest of the states, only an overwhelming revulsion in political sentiment between now and November seems likely to find any of them in the Democratic column. Judge Parker is conceded stronger in the north Atlantic states than he is in states west of the western border line of New York state; but there is little prospect of his carrying any of those states with the exception of New York. On the other hand, President Roosevelt is admittedly strong in the west, and there is little possibility that any of the western states—with the exception, perhaps, of Indiana and Wisconsin—in which the Republicans are now in control, will cast its electoral vote against him.

It is to be borne in mind, too, that New York, Indiana, West Virginia and Wisconsin are now controlled by the Republicans, and that all of them are states in which protectionist sentiment is very pronounced. West Virginia, with its seven electoral votes, may possibly go Democratic on account of its being the home of the Democratic nominee for vice president, but Indiana, with fifteen electoral votes, is more likely to go Republican on account of being the home of the Republican nominee for vice president.

AN HISTORIC BELL.

An historic old bell—said to be the first bell to call together for worship a Protestant congregation in the state of Illinois—was recently taken from the cupola of the Free Methodist church at Vandalia, where it had hung since the erection of that church. The relic is the property of the Presbyterian church of Vandalia and will be mounted in the gallery of that church, where it will be carefully guarded.

The bell was presented to the Presbyterian congregation in 1830 while Vandalia was the capital of the state. The donor was Romulus Riggs, a merchant of Philadelphia, who gave it in honor of his daughter, Illinois Riggs, who had been named after the state.

SOUVENIR PROSPECTUS.

Mrs. George Hillerby has received a souvenir prospectus of the Black Hills mining country of South Dakota. It is handsomely illustrated and gives a full description of probably the greatest mining country in the world. Dr. J. W. Freeman, a brother of Mrs. Hillerby, has become quite prominent in the Black Hills country and the prospectus has an interesting account of the many fields of work in which he is engaged.

Dr. Freeman will be remembered by many here where he was formerly a medical student under the late Dr. David W. Prince. Soon after his admission to practice Dr. Freeman left for the west and has made his home in the mining district of the Black Hills country ever since. Since residing in the town of Lead he has been chosen president of the board of education, made a director of the First National bank, elected a director in the Black Hills Mining Men's association, member of the state board of medical examiners and surgeon of the Homestead Mining company.

The evening was made most pleasant with various games and in a social way. Several of the past members of the choir presented Mrs. Greenleaf with a pearl stick pin which she prizes very highly, coming from those who for many years were active members of the choir.

ILLINOIS NEWS ITEMS

George Plahn Prominent Cass County Citizen Dead—School Teachers and Directors Have Differences.

Virginia—George Plahn, 81 years old, died recently at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Gibbs, in Beardstown. He was born in Germany and for many years was connected with the co-operative store of this city. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Jennie Dougherty, of Peoria, Mrs. E. L. McCoy, of Virginia, and Mrs. Frank Beard, of Beardstown.

Harrisburg—Differences between the school teachers and directors of the various districts in Saline county appear to become more hostile every time they meet to consider the question of the wage scale fixed by the Teachers' association recently. Both sides stand pat and refuse to give in, and much speculation is indulged in as to where the matter will end. The teachers organized recently under the name of the "Saline County Educational Association" and fixed a scale of prices for teaching. This did not meet the approval of the directors, and they formed an organization to battle against what they term the "Teachers' Trust," and at the same time appropriated the name of the teachers' organization.

Whitehall—Five years ago, a girl, aged 11 years, daughter of Rev. Elijah Mott, died of scarlet fever at Alsey, Scott county, and the body was interred in the Bowers cemetery, near there. Recently a new cemetery has been opened a mile and a half south of Alsey, and Rev. Mott decided to remove the remains of his daughter to the new location. This week the grave was opened. The casket was found to be in a state of perfect preservation, and was so heavy that it was with difficulty that four strong men brought it to the surface. An examination revealed that the body retained its natural form and color, but was as hard and heavy as stone. Rev. Mott declined to permit it to be used for exhibition purposes, and it was reinterred in the new cemetery.

Quincy—At the regular monthly meeting of the congregation of St. Jacob Lutheran church held Sunday, a call was extended to Professor Eichmann, of Alma, Mo., to the position of second teacher in the parochial school. Rev. Wm. Hallerberg, Sr., for many years pastor of the congregation, brought up the matter of his own superannuation with the recommendation that his son, Wm. Hallerberg, Jr., take his place. Despite the protests of the young divine that the change would not be for the best interests of the congregation, he was duly chosen to succeed his venerable father.

No Compulsion.

Kipling once described the Sunday morning service of a battleship on which he took a cruise. It was a very well attended service, and after it was over Kipling said to one of the jacks, "Are you obliged to attend these services every Sunday morning?" "N-n-no," said the sailor, "not exactly obliged, but our grog would be stopped if we didn't."

DAIRY INDUSTRY

Assuming Considerable Importance in Vicinity of Whitehall

The dairy industry is assuming considerable importance in the vicinity of Whitehall, according to the Republican of that city. A tabulated report published recently in that paper shows that ninety-six farmers made deliveries of milk at the milk station during June aggregating a total of 452,901 pounds, which brought $4,085.64. The industry was started a little over two years ago and in idea of what its growth has been can be gathered from the statements of the corresponding months in the three years. In June of 1902 deliveries amounted to 55,577 pounds; in June of 1903, 133,104 pounds; The pay roll increased from $509.83 in June of 1902 to $1,200.80 in the corresponding month in 1903. The report for the past month showed an average for each cow of 683 pounds of milk, valued at $6.13 1/2. The number of cows milked was 617. The cost of milking and pasturage was put at $1,328, leaving a net profit of $2,754 for the month.

DRAINAGE TROUBLE.

The big pumps of the Coal creek drainage district, Schuyler county, are idle, the ditches filled with sediment and the water inside the levee standing higher than in the river. The superintendent is off on a trip to California and the land owners are waxing wroth with an inclination on the part of some to appeal to the courts for relief. The Rushville Times says the district is now practically abandoned as far as reclamation of the lower lands is concerned. A Chicago firm, who are the principal land owners of the district and the active managers, appear to have decided to allow the property to take care of itself this year, and offer no hope for the future. The small land owners are in despair, as they have practically nothing to say as to management.

CHICAGO MAN'S WEIGHT RECORD

Lost Forty Pounds—Then Regained Them By Taking Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets.

Months of acute suffering! Reduced to almost a skeleton! Painful health restored; flesh regained—through Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets.

"D. Roberts, of 21 Quincy Street, Chicago, says:

"For about eight months I was troubled with a very severe form of indigestion and endured much suffering. Besides losing about forty pounds in weight, I was trying all sorts of operations and treatments with physicians without result. At last, I took Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, and in a short time I was able to eat and sleep. After using two boxes, I found myself almost entirely cured, and after using four boxes, I have regained my weight and am entirely well."

"Dyspepsia is caused by an abnormal state of the gastric juices. There is one element missing. The absence of this destroys the function of the gastric fluids. They lose their power to digest food."

"Thanks to the recent discovery of a group of famous specialists we are now able to supply the missing element—to restore to the gastric juices their digestive power, and to make the stomach strong and well."

"We know that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will positively and permanently cure this disease, no matter how bad it is."

"We want you to try them, and will return your money if you are not more than satisfied with the result."

"Price 25 cents, at our store only or by mail."

MIDCOAST BATHS.

Traveler Tells of Novel Feature on Pacific Ocean Liners.

Henry Cleburne Brooks, a traveler recently returned from the Orient, was at the Midland hotel, in Kansas City, for a few hours the other day en route to his home in Boston, says the Kansas City Star.

Mr. Brooks has made three trips around the world. "And it's really a small place," he went on to say, "and one sees few changes. This trip, however, I did find something new and novel. That was the midcoast baths in the Pacific. Now, when you cross the Atlantic you get the regulation little barber shop bath. On several of the big liners belonging to the Pacific Mail Steamship company a new feature has been added."

"Early each morning the crew removes the planks on the after promenade deck and then suspends an immense thick canvas tank from the side beams. The engines pump the sea water into this tank, which is so deep that the swimmers may dive from the deck-house into it. There you have a bath, pure, strengthening, free from every contamination and every danger. It has proved very popular. Every morning I crossed was alive with swimmers, while the railings and the boats in the davits were used by the other passengers to view the sport."

An Engagement on the Yalu.

An engagement on the Yalu is a very serious thing. And it's quite unnecessary. To announce it with a ring. And they do not have their cousins and their relatives in to it. And with giggles and with blushes. Tell the news, like you and me. Oh, they get right down to business. On the Yalu, far away.

And they do not think engagements are a joke at all, they say.

An engagement on the Yalu.

That the parties to the contract never suffer from neglect. For they each devote attention to the duties of the Yalu. Though they do not wait till marriage. To begin their little spat. I'm averse to long engagements. For they often lead to strife. But engagements on the Yalu. In most cases are for life.

Piles Can Be Cured

By Internal Treatment

Without the Aid of Narcotics or the Knife

You who suffer with piles know what a glorious boon it would be to you to be absolved and painlessly cured. You know from actual experience that salve, ointments and other local applications do not cure. You may get relief, but you keep on suffering.

There is a cause for every human ill. Remove the cause and you cure the complaint. Piles have two distinct causes: First, congestion of the liver; second, constipation resulting from poor digestion.

Dr. Perrin's Pile Specific

absolutely removes these causes by increasing the flow of digestive juices in the stomach, and relieving the congestion of the liver. It is a tonic for the entire bowel system and helps each particular member of this system to work safely and naturally.

You simply take a teaspoonful of this positive, internal remedy three times a day before each meal. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely free from opium, cocaine or other narcotics. It is not a palliative or temporary remedy; it produces a positive, radical and lasting cure.

Dr. Perrin's Pile Specific is sold under an

to cure any case of blind, bleeding, itching or internal piles, no matter how chronic or aggravated it may be. Out of over 100,000 cases there are only three on record which have not been cured.

Dr. Perrin's Pile Specific can be procured of any reliable druggist under an iron-clad agreement to refund your money should you take two $1.00 bottles of the remedy without receiving positive benefit.

Unable to Quarrel.

Two friends who lived together were so fond of one another that they had never once had a quarrel. But they knew that other men quarreled greatly, and they did not wish to be peculiar. At last one said to the other: "Let us have a quarrel as other men have. I will place this stone on the ground between us and say that it is mine. You claim it as yours, and thus we shall begin to quarrel."

The other agreed, and the stone was put in the midst between them.

"This is my stone," said one.

"No; it is mine," said the other mildly.

"I tell you it is mine."

"Very well," answered his friend, "it is yours. Take it."

In short, they could not quarrel even when they tried, and they wisely resolved that they would live without doing so.

Margaret's Queer Spelling.

Margaret has learned to spell a few words, among them doll, pig, boy, papa, etc.

Recently a visitor, learning of the new accomplishment, asked her, "What does p-i-g spell?"

"Why, papa, of course," answered Margaret. Every one laughed except papa. Somehow he couldn't see the joke at all.

Tom's Grammar.

"I ain't got no pencil, Tom," said his teacher. "Correct the sentence, and give your reason for the correction."

"You should say, 'I have no pencil,'" said Tom glibly. "It ain't never proper to say 'ain't,' because there ain't no such word as 'ain't.'"

Pollywog Philosophy.

The tadpoles all sat in the river and said: "How lucky we are to be all tail and head."

Just think how we'd feel if we were as absurd as a single eyed fish or a feathery bird.

Or worse still, they cried. "We would wish we had died."

If instead of our being such nice pollywogs, Mother Nature had made us all into green frogs."

The dignified frogs sat on green lily pads and said: "How absurd to say we spring from tadpoles."

From the little black tadpoles, all tail and all head!

Why, if it were true we should wish we were dead!

But it cannot be so.

For how could we grow so beautiful if we had been pollywogs? No, no! We have always been dignified frogs!"

PATENT MEDICINES.

A man that compounds or invents something that is just a little better than the next best thing, is certainly entitled to the best share of the profits to be derived from the sale of the article. So he patents or copyrights to protect his interests. Patented goods are good goods, poor goods are never patented. We have 20 years of trial behind us to give us the assurance that we have the best medicine compounded for the cure of dyspepsia, sick-headache, biliousness, indigestion, and all stomach disorders. We protect the public as well as ourselves by keeping the formula a secret, as long as we make it we know it is made right and it cures these diseases. Druggists tell us that it is the one medicine that the sale is ever on the increase. To get the best remedy for dyspepsia or indigestion ask the druggist for Dr. Galt's Improved Liver Pills, price 80c per box, only one for a dose. For sale by Lee P. Allcott.

Don't Set Trees Too Deep.

Experiments in planting trees of different depths have been tested at a German experiment station with characteristic thoroughness. A number of trees were set at the usual depth and others at various depths, all lower than the nominal, to see what effect this would have upon the roots of the trees. In every case the tree, both in top and roots, grew more slowly with every increase in depth in planting beyond the usual depth.

Split Up the Flocks.

One of the chief reasons why poultry does not do well on some farms is because they are generally kept in one large flock, from 50 to 150 hens frequently. If the flock was divided up, and not more than twenty-five kept together, the result would be a general improvement in health and productivity.

STUDYING BOTANY

When first Glenfield Pearce went to the reading room at the British museum he was so weighed down with thought of his own insignificance and the ponderous amount of books that he almost gave up the idea of writing at all.

For it was not as a struggling author yearning to earn his bread that he came to consult some of the million odd volumes, but because, being an authority on the botany of his own country, he had been asked to write a paper on that subject.

The subdued voices of the officials, the deadened footfalls on the soft flooring, rebuked his enthusiasm.

Then the tangle of catalogues on that center table!

It was through one of those lists that Glenfield first made the acquaintance of Ursula Holyroyd.

She was trying to pull about seventy pounds weight of morocco bound catalogue from its place, and standing at the next space, he went to the assistance of beauty in distress.

After that they met frequently, and Glenfield began to find that his subject required constant attendance at the library and wrote to his mother at Glenfield Manor that the books of reference at the museum were invaluable, and he could not tell when he would be home—at any rate, not until the pheasants required his attention.

Many a quiet talk they had together as they wandered about the great galleries, exchanging theories and ideas, for Ursula was a delightfully refined and educated woman, and, though spending half her life working up wearisome statistics for a firm of publishers, thereby earning the money which was necessary to eke out the small pension possessed by her mother, she was as bright and happy as if engaged in the most congenial employment.

In her father's lifetime she had spent many a pleasant season at Malta or Gibraltar or wherever the squadron touched, and her father, a captain in the navy, could make a temporary home for his wife and daughter.

Glenfield had persuaded her to come into the Egyptian gallery one day, and a passing smile seemed to illumine the stony face of a pharaoh as he sat, hands on knees, looking down at the love drama going on at his feet, which was enacted much the same in his day.

"How I should love to see the land where all these wonders came from!" said Ursula. "I know I have been lucky in seeing so much of the world, but I always longed for father to be stationed at Alexandria. I fear I am morbid, but mummies have a fascination for me."

"I should like to take you to Egypt," said Glenfield, watching the bright face, at his side.

She looked up, surprised at his words.

"You forget. Struggling authors like you and I cannot do such things. One cannot go to Cairo for a few pounds."

He had never told her he was poor. She had simply taken the fact for granted, seeing that he pored over the musty volumes day after day until the opportunity came for a rest and a stroll with her.

"May I come and call upon your mother?" he said presently. "I should much like to meet her and hear of your brother, who was on board the Moonstone as gunnery lieutenant when your father was captain."

The following morning he received a letter from his mother reminding him of the guests he had already invited for the pheasant shooting, commencing on the following day.

It was six weeks before he could again come up to town.

"Ursula," he said as he grasped the little hand she held out to him, "child, tell me what is the matter. What has happened?"

She could not trust her voice. Only she looked down at the black dress she wore in mute answer to his question.

Together they paced the long, deserted galleries, and she told him the story of her mother's short illness and death.

No word escaped her of the awful desolation in her heart nor of her poverty, which was very real and terrible now. At her mother's death the pension had been stopped.

"But you see, I have my work left to distract my thoughts, and I must work harder than ever now," was all she said, and he guessed the rest.

They were in the gem room and the sparkle of the diamonds and the sunny gold of the topaz seemed in their costly splendor to mock at the pitiful little tale of acknowledged bereavement and unacknowledged poverty.

"Ursula," he said, looking down into the eyes which rivaled the sapphires in their depth and purity, "will you give me the right to comfort you? Will you be my wife?"

At last she looked at him, and he knew before the words were spoken that all the pearls and rubies which surrounded them could not buy the happiness which was to be his—a free gift.—Exchange.

The Emperor and the Pirate.

Alexander the Great was about to pass sentence of death on a noted pirate, but previously asked him, "Why dost thou trouble the seas?"

"Why," rejoined the rover boldly, "dost thou trouble the whole world? I, with one ship, go in quest of solitary adventure and am therefore called pirate; thou, with a great army, warrest against nations and therefore art called emperor. Sir, there is no difference betwixt us but in the name and means of doing mischief."

Alexander, so far from being displeased with the freedom of the culprit, was so impressed with the force of his appeal that he dismissed him unpunished.

ALL OVER THE HOUSE.

Linseed Oil Keeps Bare Pine Floors in Good Condition.

"Speaking of bare floors," said one of a party of ladies, "you all know how beautifully speck and span Mrs. L.'s floors always are, and they are as soft as pine too. Well, I asked her the other day the secret of it, and her answer was: 'Linseed oil and elbow grease. A very little of the former and as much of the latter as I can get.'"

"She said that, primarily the floors were treated to a thin coat of oak stain, then oiled, as little oil as was practicable being applied, but well rubbed in and always with the grain of the wood. She never oiled oftener than once a month, and each oiling is preceded by a sponging with warm suds, which prevents the wood becoming too dark and removes any dust which may have adhered to the floors. In the interval from one oiling to the next the floors are simply dusted with a soft mop."—New Idea Magazine.

Cure For Earache.

Drop into the ear as much warm olive oil or sweet oil as the ear will hold; then a piece of cotton. In an hour or two put in more warm oil. Let it remain all night or longer; then syringe the ear, using a soft rubber syringe. Use soft water which has been boiled and pure, unperfumed castile soap. Make a suds and strain through a cloth. Use as warm as can be borne comfortably. Syringe the ear for five or ten minutes. If not much benefited, use more warm oil and syringe next day. You would be surprised to see the pieces of hardened wax which come from the ears of scrupulously clean persons. A child who had many times suffered all night from severe earache has not had a return of the trouble since three pieces of wax were removed in this way.

A Good Thing to Keep in the House.

Compound tincture of benzoin will stop an aching tooth instantly if a little cotton is saturated with it and put in the tooth. If any of the family cut themselves, paint the cut thoroughly with benzoin. Painted on a burn, it will stop the smart and heal the burn. We use it for chapped or cracked hands and think there is nothing like it. The simple tincture is fine if a few drops are put in the water with which to bathe the face. The simple tincture is a toilet preparation, and the compound tincture is a medical preparation. It forms an air tight coating wherever applied.—Woman's Home Companion.

TWO BOTTLES CURED HIM.

Laundry Lines.

A spoonful of borax put into the water in which white clothes are rinsed has the effect of whitening them.

When washing lace do not blue it, but give it a final rinsing in skim milk. This will give it the creamy tint so much admired and also a slight stiffness.

The water in which a small quantity of rice has been boiled until it is gelatinous makes an excellent starch for fine lawn or canvas collars and cuffs. Dip them in and iron between two cloths.

To Peel Tomatoes.

Nearly every cook or recipe book says, "Pour boiling water over ripe tomatoes, then skin them." But this is a very vague direction. The correct way to peel tomatoes is to cover them with boiling water for half a minute, then lay them in cold water until perfectly cold, and the skin can be peeled off without difficulty, leaving the tomatoes unbroken and as firm as they were before being sealded.

REAR THIS.

Jacksonville, Ill., Aug. 24, 1904.—For twelve years I have suffered from diabetes and have spent hundreds of dollars with various doctors, with little benefit. I was recommended to try a bottle of Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, and will cheerfully testify to the public that it did me more good than all things else put together and am altogether another man. I have persuaded many of my friends to try it.

DEATH RECORD

DOAN.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Parker Doan died Sunday morning at 8 o'clock and brief funeral services were held at Diamond Grove cemetery at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, where the interment took place. Rev. J. F. John, of Trinity church, read the Episcopal burial service.

SHUMAKER.

Lloyd Schumaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Schumaker, of Roodhouse, died at the family home in that city at 3:45 o'clock Monday morning at the age of 11 years. Death was due to lockjaw, resulting from a wound in his foot caused by a splinter ten days ago. The splinter was removed at the time and nothing further thought of the injury until last Friday, when the boy complained of its paining him. Saturday he was taken to a doctor who at once saw that he was in a serious condition, as tetanus had set in. All efforts to save the lad's life proved futile. During the last twenty-four hours of his life he suffered paroxysms of the most intense agony. Funeral services will be held in Roodhouse to day at 2:30 o'clock, in charge of Rev. J. J. Reach. Interment will be in Fernwood cemetery.

He was followed by Mr. Olsenmeyer, Henry Baskett, G. Renner and others. After considerable discussion it was decided that those present in favor of the plan constitute themselves a provisional committee to work up a sentiment in favor of its introduction, and that another meeting be held Thursday, Aug. 4.

BATTING RALLY IN THE NINTH

Saved Locals From Defeat at the Hands of Lanesville Players.

An exciting finish marked the base ball game at West Side park Sunday afternoon between Lanesville and Jacksonville, and it was only by a batting rally in the ninth that the day was saved by the locals.

In the first inning Lanesville went right after Baker's twisters and pounded out five runs before the locals seemed to realize the game was on. One more came to them in the second and after that they never scored.

Jacksonville played a steady, uphill game and finally when all hope had vanished struck a batting streak and pounded out enough runs to win the game. At the beginning of the ninth the score stood three to six in favor of Lanesville.

In the total of hits made both teams shared equally and Lanesville had the better of the error column. The score:
